Comments to the Author

*Introduction need more information about liquid smoked fish as well as other research results on smoked fish.

*there quite number of references listed but not all could be found in the manuscript,

*some typing mistakes such as 4,8 should be typed as 4.8.

*Rewrite the sentences on line no 97 - 99.

*PAH (sentence in line 0.8% conc. should be written as 0.8% concentration.

Reviewer: 2

Comments to the Author

The freshness of the fresh skipjack was not characterized and how the samples were handled during transportation from fish market to the laboratory was not clearly explained.

Reviewer: 3

Comments to the Author

The abstract is need to be concise and clear. Treatments were not clearly described as well as the research design.

Some elaboration and proved data are necessary to be given for some discussion

Comments to the Author

From the introduction section, it was clearly stated the new preservation technique has been in line with food safety aspect although the HACCP Principle has not yet been implemented during the process. However, methods and statistical analysis as well as parameters being measured were clearly explained.
