Dear Academic Editor of Pakistan Journal of Biological Sciences,

Thank you for your update information.

I made some corrections of the final proof (in red color), i.e.

1. List of correction for table titles and figure captions.
2. Correction of research article text (Please ignore the changes in the figures and tables because of the effect of the conversion final proof from PDF file to word when I made some corrections).

Please find these two files in the attachment.

I sent two emails a few minutes ago and please ignore them because I made some further correction for research article text. Sorry about this inconvenience.

Thank you for your attention and don't hesitate to contact me if you need further information.

Best regards,
Nio Song Ai

Dear Academic Editor of Pakistan Journal of Biological Sciences,

I just informed by email that the status of manuscript has been changed to be:
Published: Manuscript has been published in Pakistan Journal of Biological Sciences.
Thank you very much for your update information.

Unfortunately, my correction of the Final Proof for the article title was not included. On the other hand, I got the email from Science Alert Support Team on 19 March 2019 that my suggested corrections will be incorporated in this manuscript.

The title in the online published article is "Partial Submergence Tolerance in Rice (Oryza sativa L.) Cultivated in North Sulawesi at the Vegetative Phase Partial Submergence Tolerance in Rice (Oryza sativa L.)"

The title of this article should be "Partial Submergence Tolerance in Rice (Oryza sativa L.) Cultivated in North Sulawesi at the Vegetative Phase" without Partial Submergence Tolerance in Rice (Oryza sativa L.) as I sent in the list of some corrections of the final proof by email on 20 February 2019.

Can I ask your favor to change the title of 92862-PJBS-ANSI to be "Partial Submergence Tolerance in Rice (Oryza sativa L.) Cultivated in North Sulawesi at the Vegetative Phase"

Thank you very much for your attention and I'm looking forward to hearing from you soon. Sorry about this inconvenience.

Best regards,
Nio Song Ai
