I am very pleased to finalise my manuscript titled "the mangrove flora and their physical characteristics in Bunaken National Park, North Sulawesi Indonesia". To the best of my knowledge the journal of Biodiversitas would be the best journal for the publication of the manuscript. I am hoping that the manuscript will be considered to publish in this journal. I thank you very much for all and looking forward for the folowing processes.

Best regards,

Rignolda Djamaluddin

In general this manuscript is hard to understand, I think this writing needs clear sentences and many paragraphs need concluding sentence(s). In addition, many habitat terminologies are confusing and not widely used.
