Dear Femy M.

What species structuring the Nile fish assemblages at macrotidal estuary, in Gorontalo Bay, Indonesia?

Sahami FM, Kapal RC, Oti AH and Pragasvi SB

Thank you for your submission to F1000Research. We have noted a few issues with your manuscript (below) - once these are addressed we will be pleased to accept your article for publication.

Abstract: Please include 1-2 sentences describing the conclusions of your study in the abstract.

Methods: Please include more detail in the methods. In particular, please describe the splitting of fish into different groups and what these groups represented, what was sequenced and all post-sequencing processing methods (including all software with version numbers).

Tables/Figures: Please note that tables cannot contain images. The content of all tables/figures must be described in the text - they cannot stand alone.

Grant information: Please state who funded the work. If the work was not funded by any grants, please state: "The authors declare that no grants were involved in supporting this work."

Acknowledgements: Please confirm that you have notified the people you have acknowledged by name in the manuscript.

Reviewers: As you know, F1000Research operates an author-driven publication model. This means that you will be responsible for suggesting suitable reviewers, whom we invite on your behalf, giving you an opportunity to ensure that appropriate experts review your article. Our transparent peer review process means that the peer review reports, together with the reviewers' names, will be published alongside your article.

To avoid delay to the publication process, we need you to provide us with at least five potential reviewers who meet our reviewer criteria before we can publish your article - please be aware that it is likely we will need to request further reviewer suggestions after publication. Please go to your Suggest Reviewers page, where you will find a useful tool to help you find reviewers; use this page to track the progress of the peer review process for your article. You can access this page directly via the article's record under My Research >> Submissions. See also our reviewer criteria and tips for finding reviewers.

Please remember that suggested reviewers should have appropriate level of experience and the right expertise to judge your article; they must be able to provide an unbiased report (e.g. they must not be recent collaborators or colleagues in your institution). All reviewer suggestions are checked by the editorial team and will be rejected if they do not meet our criteria.

Payment: As F1000Research is open access, we will require payment of the Article Processing Charge (APC) to be able to complete the processing of your submission. As your article is currently classified as a small article, the APC is $150.00. Please provide us with the name, postal address, e-mail address and VAT number (if applicable) of the person or single organization taking responsibility for making the payment. Please also let us know which currency you prefer to pay in (USD, GBP or Euros). Our Accounts department will be in touch regarding payment.

We have also lightly copyedited your article - please download the document and check you are happy with the amendments and then address the queries detailed above using track changes in Word. Please return your revised manuscript to the e-mail address above. Please note that this is your final opportunity to make any changes to the content of your manuscript. Once the typeset PDF of your manuscript has been created, we will send you a final PDF proof for checking prior to publication.

Best wishes,
