First of all, please check the latest version of the conference program at the ITSC 2014 Web site (<http://www.itsc2014.org/>) to verify the scheduled time slot for your presentation. Each presentation will be allocated 18 minutes (including Q&A).

Please note that this message is only sent to the contact author of each of the papers which have been accepted for oral presentation. If you are not going to be the speaker, please forward this message to your co-author who will present your paper.

Preparation

- Please bring a copy of your presentation material both on your laptop (if you use one) and on a USB driver. At the conference you will have available a laptop running PowerPoint and PDF reader, as well as the ability to plug in your own laptop via a VGA port.
- Please be at your session's designated room 15 minutes before the scheduled starting time.
- Establish contact with your session chair.
- Please be sure to end your presentation on time. The session chair will repeat you with a time card when you

- Please be sure to end your presentation on time. The session chair will prompt you with a time card when you have 5 minutes left, then again at 1, and then when to stop.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to let us know by e-mail at ieeetsc@gmail.com.

Looking forward to seeing you in Qingdao at the conference!
