PS. Please verify your text. I have an short question to you. Both authors are from Japan? In one of your version, you sent us two affiliations. What is the correct affiliation(s)? Please tell us. Thank you in advance.
Also, we consider that your contribution is indicated and proposed for eventually publishing in ACTA TECHNICA/Fascicule 3 (in July), not in ANNALS/Fascicule 3 (in August/September). I remember you, both my Journals have the same indexation and same visibility in the scientific community. Please tell us, if you grant the permission to publish your paper in the most available issue. In other case, we will take in consideration your paper only in September. Thank you in advance for your answer.
