Dear Liany Hendrata,

With a great regret I inform you that the author gives only the extract of electronic version of the published contributions. Sorry, but the printed editions are limited and are destined only for the Libraries, Universities and for the Academies uses. And the 2010 issues was completely out of print. But all the informations are on the official web-site of the Journal (<http://annals.fih.upt.ro>), in the online version. You can download your paper in pdf version. I attached to this mail the complete pdf volume. Only in this way I could help you. Thank you for the understanding. I wait your next contribution(s) for reviewing & publishing in 2012.

Respectfully,
I. Kiss
